Southern Court Wants Women

Commands the Jury to Indict a Wife Charged With Slaying Husband.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
LAKE PROVIDENCE (La.) Jan. 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] What is considered one of the most remarkable attacks upon southern chivalry and the suffrage movement in the history of the South was delivered today by Judge F. X. Randall in instructing the jury to indict for murder Mrs. J. F. Booth, who killed her husband, one of the most respected physicians in Louisiana. A true bill for manslaughter.

JUDGE CHARGE
In his charge, Judge Randall said: "The crime, which has been committed in this community through the slaying of Dr. Booth by his wife, is one of the most horrible and gravest transgressions of the law ever committed in Louisiana."

"I know there is great sentiment in favor of the woman who shot this man, and I know that men down here with different eyes on a woman than on a man. I am ashamed of that, and that is the disgrace of American men."

"The murderer must be allowed to speak in this hall, even if the murderer is a woman. I am ashamed of the sentiment of the community for the woman in this case. The people of Louisiana are ashamed of her."

BARS "SASS" OVER PHONE.

Chicago Judge Finds Woman Who Asked Her Neighbors.

(A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—"If you abuse persons over the telephone you are just as guilty of disorderly conduct as you would be if you talked to them face to face," was the ruling made today by Municipal Judge
Sabath in fining Mrs. Dagmar Johnson for remarks made to Mrs. Minnie Brooks.

have been outraged and the law has been defied. Because she is a woman she can't murder with impunity. The worst crimes in the history of the world have been committed by women."

"In this later day they must now stand trial like men. This court expects you, gentlemen of the jury, to return an indictment. You have a public duty to perform. I saw this man myself as he lay dead where his wife shot him down, and I told the sheriff to arrest the woman and put her in jail."

Judge Randall referred to the French revolution and told how the women went to greater excesses than the men and stepped their arms up to the elbows in the blood of their fellow-men. He declared that while women are gentle and sweet-tempered when aroused they would go into greater excesses and sink to lower depths.

Judge Randall stated that in his opinion an atrocious crime had been committed and that the jury should return a true bill against Mrs. Booth.
He related how all over the world women are knocking at the door for the rights of citizenship and the ballot, and how they are clamoring for all the franchises and privileges enjoyed by their male counterparts, yet, he said, they should be amenable to all the laws and suffer for all their transgressions, and must not be permitted to hide behind any sentimentally-muddled chivalry or immunity of sex.

GLYN HERO

IN THE TOMBS.

ORIGINAL OF PAUL IN THREE WEEKS' BEHIND BARS.

Blonde Englishman Called Prince

of Cyprus and Who Admits He Gave Inspiration to Torrid British

Authorship Held on Charge of Larcery of a Watch.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Jan. 29.—[Special Dispatch.]
Said, their skin, some love, some $1000, some everything, the Prince de Clarmont is the guest of the city of New York—his bed an iron casket, his hopes a cell.

The big blonde Englishman who called himself Paul Allen, to hide his real blood and the fact, as he said, that he was the original of Paul, in Elmer Glyn's "Three Weeks" has been in the toms since January 18, waiting to have a charge of grand larceny preferred by "Patry."

It is a fine thing, of course, to be an Elmer Glyn hero, but to be discovered when one is trying to reap the news from the world—that is better. And it is probable the truth never would have been known had not some "paleontologist" written a letter to Magistrate Corrigan. The letter said all and it only remained for the "Patry" to confirm it.

ADMITTED HE IS "PAUL."

"My word—it is perfectly shocking that the truth has been known," he exclaimed when asked as to his identity. "Yes, I am Paul, the hero of the novel 'Three Weeks' but 'yes' my word, there is no truth in the charge of my having stolen Patry's watch. She gave it to me to pawn and I returned the money and ticket to her. I am really here because of the animosity and jealousy of three women."

"I was rehearsing an original dance with Patry Livingston, who made the charge against me, and who,
I found that she did not know how to dance. I broke away from her."

GOES WITHOUT DETECTIVE.

"On the night of January 17, a detective came to my room at the Grand Hotel and asked me about the watch incident. I told him about it and he said for me to come to the station house, where he would straighten the matter out. I refrained from telling my story to the magistrate, fearing my identity would become known."

URGENT MORE PAY FOR DISABILITY.
INDUSTRIAL ACCIDENT BOARD SUBMITS SCALE.

Compensation at Present Under Workmen's Accident Laws Is Declared to Be Inadequate, and Radical Changes Are Recommended to the State Legislature.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SACRAMENTO, Jan. 29.—Inequality in workmen's accident compensation under the present laws probably will be remedied, as far as possible, and radical changes will be made in legislation proposed by the Industrial Accident Board of California, following an investigation of the workmen of the existing system.

The board's proposed scale, in a report made public today, includes in effect: Half pay for life for total disability. No top limit for cost of medical attendance. Readjustment of the disability scale. At the present time, the board says, a man who is disabled is granted a sum of money, and then he is left to his own devices. The board proposes to remedy this by paying for total disability a sum equal to the present death benefit, plus one-third of the wages he would have received for life. This would work out at about half pay for life.

Another radical change is the increase of compensation, proportionate to the extent of the injury. At present, this compensation increases rapidly in the lower percentages of disability, and then drops in the higher percentages. This, the board finds, is wrong, and it proposes to pay a gradually rising scale for disability up to 100 per cent. If a man is more than 50 per cent disabled, it finds, he is not good for much, and consequently where the average of compensation is 25 per cent, disability of 50 per cent or more should be 75 per cent. The new rate would be, for 50 per cent disability, a rate which is the equivalent of about 50 per cent of the wages he would have received. At present, the corresponding increase is from an average of 15 per cent wages to 125 per cent.

For every 100 accidents, the board finds, one man dies, seven are permanently disabled, in whole or in part, and ninety-three are temporarily disabled. Among 100 accidents causing permanent disability, two cause complete disability, thirty-three cause partial disability, and the remainder are somewhere in between. Temporary disability is caused for a week or less in thirty of every 100 accidents, for a month or more in twenty, and for a year or more in the remainder.

COST TO EMPLOYER.
The employers' average expense under the present and proposed law, given in terms of his total weekly pay, is as follows:

Present Proposed	Law
Imperative disability, .0012	.0012

MARRIED COUPLE ON SAME JURY.

Judge Rules Husband and Wife Cannot Serve.

May They Would Influence Each Other's Minds.

But He Says He'd Rather Not Have Her There.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SEATTLE, Jan. 29.—It is not proper for husband and wife to sit on the same jury. The point was made today in a damage case in the superior court. Judge Mitchell Gilliam permitted counsel for the plaintiff to challenge J. D. Dean of Kent, whose husband had been accepted as a juror. It is counsel's contention that one would influence the other.

Dean was asked if the presence of his wife would influence him, and he answered that it would not. He said he would rather not have her there.

MUCH MARRIED—ONLY ONCE.

Woman With Three Husbands Just Secured Divorce From Her First. Legal Tangle Result.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
COLUBA (Cal.) Jan. 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Married three times, although never divorced from her first husband until today, is the embarrassing situation of Mrs. Ota Bond, who has just been granted a final decree from Dave Bond in the local court.

Mrs. Bond was granted an interlocutory decree March 8, 1904, and on March 7, 1907, married Henry Moore, neglecting, however, to procure the final decree. She parted from Moore, was given an interlocutory decree from him and later married William Lowe, again neglecting to secure her final decree.

Through all this experience Mrs. Bond-Moore-Lowe never thought there had been any hitch and imagined herself free from entanglements. According to local attorneys, the marriage to Moore had no legal standing whatever, and to make lawful her present union, Mrs. Bond will have to remarry Lowe.

TO ANNUL "JOKE" WEDDING.
San Francisco Man Asks Court to Free Him If He Ever Was Married.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 29.—If Herbert Ford of this city ever was married, he wants the service annulled. If he was not married, he wants it annulled anyway. Just to be on the safe side. That was the burden of the request he made this morning to Judge Morgan of the superior court.

Ford told the court he swears from a celebration of April Fools Day in 1908 in his old home in Leavenworth, Kan., to find that his friends referred to him jokingly as a "married man." He says he fled without stopping to inquire the name of his "wife" or when the ceremony was performed.

Now he wants to be free beyond any question or doubt, and claims that he has been eight years and traveling 2000 miles in his quest for the joke far enough. Judge Morgan told him he would have to make sure he was married before a decree of annulment could be entered.

GLAVIS EPISODE TAKES NEW TURN.

Washington Is Investigating Lieu Land Affair.

Fisher Notified to Hold Up Claims in Question.

Involves Property Valued Far Into the Thousands.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 29.—The squabble over the so-called lieu lands consisting of valuable timber holdings in Northern California, which resulted in the resignation of L. R. Glavis, secretary of the State Conservation Commission, took a new turn today when it became known that an official of the Department of the Interior is here conducting a quiet investigation into the whole affair.

The official to whom the investigation has been assigned is F. C. Densford, a special agent of the department who is said to have been active in unearthing evidence in connection with the recent oil land fraud investigation, carried on by Uncle Sam Densford who was secretary of the Interior Fisher at Washington, advising him to hold up all the lieu land claims in question and especially those filed by Glavis in behalf of the Wood Lumber Company and other big concerns in preference. It had been charged, to smaller land claimants.

These claims aggregated thousands of acres in extent and thousands of dollars in value. Densford is said to feel assured that Fisher will act on his recommendation and refuse to approve the claims.

SOBS OUT STORY OF LOST LOVE.
CHURCH SINGER READS NOTES OF MULTI-MILLIONAIRE.

Tells Story in Indianapolis of His Fondness For Her and of Her Daring His Shirts, in Five Hundred Thousand Dollar Breach of Promise Suit.

(BY FEDERAL WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.)
INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.) Jan. 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Between soba Gertrude Hamler, church singer and plaintiff in a $500,000 breach of promise suit in the superior court, read letters received from Carl Fisher, defendant and multi-millionaire, while he was in France. She said his pet name for her was "Dutch."

"Dutch," said one letter, "I am tired of this trip; tired of this country. I have had enough tour to last me ten years. I miss your arms and your kisses."

Before the letters were introduced in evidence Miss Hamler swore that she had dated "Carl" shirts and socks and that Fisher had taken her to church, to the Herron Art Institute, to the Casino Club, to the "Fairbank home" and to the home of the Hollingsworths. While at the last place she declared Fisher said: "Holly June is going to be my best girl; what do you think of her?"

At the supper table, the witness added, Fisher put his arm around her. Miss Hamler, in continuing her testimony today, declared that Fisher had dared her to bring suit against him, boasting that he could buy the judge and jury.

Honesty Best Policy.

CHOKING WITH EMOTION BIDS BROTHER FAREWELL.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

FRESNO, Jan. 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] With her arms about him and choking with tears, Miss Edith Reid of Los Angeles early this morning bid farewell to her brother, William J. Reid, notorious crook, and boarded the south-bound train. This afternoon Reid was taken from the County Jail by Deputy Sheriff Thorwaldsen and started for Fresno Penitentiary to serve a sentence of six years for forging a $14,850 bank draft which he deposited in the Sanger Commercial Bank.

With credits for good behavior Reid will complete his sentence in four years and two months. Before leaving the jail Reid submitted to the first interview that he has given since his incarceration.

REID'S PHILOSOPHY.
"My warning to everyone is to lead an honest life," said Reid. "When only a little boy in Rockford, Iowa, I started to scheme to make money. My ambition was to be rich. When I left home and went to Chicago to make my way in life, I had accumulated a little money, but I fell in with dishonest men, and they soon had every cent of my money. In order to make money in Chicago one has to be dishonest like the rest of the crooks, and from little deals I went in for big sums."

"I never took a cent from a poor man and the money I gained dishonestly was invested in legitimate business and lost. This is the last chapter in my life, but I wish everyone to know that I am not guilty of all the crimes and swindles that have been charged against my record. I can take my punishment, but it is for my loyal sister and aged folks that I mourn."

ALIENS MUST BRING FAMILIES.
Judge Anderson Rules They Must Have Them Here Before They Can Be Naturalized.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—Married aliens whose families are in their native land must bring them to the United States before they can become citizens, according to a ruling of Federal Judge Anderson of Indianapolis, who was sitting here yesterday in place of Judge Landis. The court made the ruling as a general policy relative to the naturalization of aliens. For this reason out of eighty-eight applicants for citizenship, Judge Anderson held up the applications of two.

DEAD DOG BY PARCEL POST.
Dead Canine Consigned to State Hygienic Laboratory at Berkeley for Examination by Scientists.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
BERKELEY (Cal.) Jan. 29.—Compulsorily flanked by packages of dolls and drug goods, a dead dog came riding into town yesterday via the parcel post. It was consigned to the State hygienic laboratory, and was introduced by the sign "Dead dog" on the cover of the neat bundle in which it was wrapped.

As the dog was dead, an examination was required to establish the correctness of the label. After an autopsy, Dr. W. A. Sawyer pronounced it a case of rabies.

The package was sent from Fresno, Cal., where the dog had been shot. Postmaster Merrill of this city sent out an order to all tributary stations to accept no more such questionable packages.

A 2-Passenger Roadster Combining Style, Comfort and Power

In the 1912 Cadillac roadster is at last found a two-passenger car that has all the rakishness desired in a roadster, but at the same time permits the occupants to ride in perfect comfort. It has large, easy seats and the perfect spring suspension results in a roadster that rides like a touring car.

This new product of the Cadillac Motor Car Company is designed along unique lines which not only makes the Cadillac distinctive, but gives the car grace and beauty.

It is Cadillac through and through, having a motor that will provide more speed and power than the average motor will ever desire to use and at the same time it handles with the ease of an electric.

If you are one of the few individuals not already convinced that the Cadillac is one of the greatest motor values ever offered we refer you to any Cadillac owner, and there are thousands of them in California. Ask any Cadillac owner, no matter how old his car might be. We rest our case entirely with the man who owns the car.

But again we add, you miss a treat if you fail to see this new Cadillac model. The price is $2125, f.o.b. Los Angeles. Car new on exhibition.

Retention of Present Rates Deemed Impossible.

Underwood Is Quite Enthusiastic Against Protection.

Unshades and Human Hair in Sundries Schedule.

BY A. P. MIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—An unsuccessful fight to have the House committee on Ways and Means retain the present tariff of 15 per cent on sundries on boots and shoes, which was the subject of today's session, failed to pass. The committee, which is headed by Underwood, the committee's chief, today told the representatives of the shoe and retail shoe industries of the country that the tariff was prohibitive; that there was no revenue, and that retention of the present rate was impossible. Underwood said that the committee was not in a position to make a big drop in the rates.

Numerous speeches appeared in the various branches of the shoe industry, national associations of the manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers, and of the labor union all favoring the present duty. Mr. Underwood suggested that the final vote be taken on the shoe tariff, but the American people at the election, had rendered a verdict "tariff for revenue" instead of "tariff for protection" and that "you can not expect to write a protective tariff on only 5 per cent."

SUNDRIES SCHEDULE.

A variety of articles ranging from schedules to human hair and from retires to bituminous coal, all making up a total customs revenue of $29,931,969 last year, were at issue today. The committee on Ways and Means, which is headed by Underwood, the committee's chief, today told the representatives of the shoe and retail shoe industries of the country that the tariff was prohibitive; that there was no revenue, and that retention of the present rate was impossible. Underwood said that the committee was not in a position to make a big drop in the rates.

UNDERWOOD'S HAT IN RING.

While James Marshall, representing the fur felt hat industry, was arguing against the duty on raw material in the fur felt hat industry, an incident placed beside him a brown hat. It was Mr. Underwood's. The chairman asked the cost of making that hat in Italy, where it was made.

Window Breaking on Large Scale Is Resumed.

BY A. P. MIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

LONDON, Jan. 29.—[General.] Dr. Drummond and thirty other militant suffragettes will spend the next fourteen days in jail as the result of their determination to force David Lloyd George, Chancellor of the Exchequer, to receive them in the House of Commons last evening. All of the women stated after they were sentenced today that they would start "hunger strikes" when the suffragettes during the hearing that the police had handled her roughly when she was arrested. She declared that she would throw her in the streets.

"It is now war to the knife," she said to the magistrate. "You and Mr. George have lots of trouble on your mind. You will have to do your duty and you will have to do it." The magistrate refused the option of paying a fine instead of going to jail.

WOMEN PREPARED.

New-street Police Court looked like a military camp when the suffragettes were arraigned. Most of the women had made preparations to go to jail. They carried boxes, bags, and food. Some of the women were sentenced to fourteen days' imprisonment on most of the suffragettes brought up today at the women's police court in London. The women included window breakers and letter box damage as well as the raiders of the House of Commons. Under the leadership of Dr. Drummond.

LEADER IS RELEASED.

Mr. Depard, a leader of the militant suffragettes, who with two women companions, was sentenced yesterday to fourteen days' imprisonment on the charge of resisting the police. She released this evening, some of the women having paid her fine. Mrs. Depard, who is a sister of Gen. Sir John French, has refused to accept the option offered by the magistrate of paying a fine, and went to jail.

CHURCH WINDOW BREAKING.

The suffragettes resumed their window breaking and post box outrages at a small scale tonight, but their actions were sufficient to maintain a state of nervous apprehension among the shopkeepers and the large number of police and private watchmen guarding the streets and buildings.

Clashes With Taft.

for the Philippines. "I am not going to debate the question of Philippine independence with President Taft," said Mr. Clark. "I have no intention to make a Philippine issue and I'm not going to, either. I wish we were out of there in as good shape as we were when we got there."

According to the Democratic platform, which I didn't make—we are committed to a policy. I believe that when a man gets office on a platform he should live up religiously to the plank that are in that platform."

EULOGY OF MCKINLEY. President Taft began his address with a eulogy of President McKinley. From praise of McKinley he turned to the Philippines.

Senator Burton and Pomeroy and Representative Cannon also made addresses. Justice Day of the Supreme Court was testmaster, and Justice McKenna, Lurion and Lamar were among the guests at the speaker's table.

El Segundo

"The Standard Oil Pay Roll City"

"The Pacific Coast's Great Sea-Board Shipping Will Some Day Center at or Near EL SEGUNDO, the Industrial Suburb of Los Angeles"---

There are three things regarding EL SEGUNDO that every far-sighted man in the world can see plainly mean an absolute guarantee of its great future. So said an Eastern capitalist the other day after visiting the new Industrial Suburb of Los Angeles.

They are (1) Southern California, (2) Panama Canal, (3) Standard Oil.

That any one of the three is sufficient warranty for investment goes without saying—that the three elements combining at EL SEGUNDO clinch the argument is apparent.

"I am investing there on this basis—so are my friends. It's my advice to any big or little investor who intends to bank on Southern California and is simply looking for the best place to bank."

See EL SEGUNDO and what it is today! Analyze the facts and realize what they mean to EL SEGUNDO and its future!

You can see EL SEGUNDO without expense—How? Call on EL SEGUNDO is not a real estate speculation. EL SEGUNDO reared itself on a barley field along the beach some fourteen months ago, simply because Standard Oil located its mammoth refinery there and so a city had to be built to care for an army of Standard Oil employees and their families.

Need made this city—and through actual need the safest and most lucrative investments in the world are found.

Are you alive to your opportunity?

Send me, without any obligation on my part, a copy of the new Industrial Suburb of Los Angeles without expense.

DEFINES DUTY AS TO SICKLES.

ATTY-GEN. CARMODY REPLIES TO MRS. LONGSTREET.

Issue That Empire State Has Been Liable in Dealing With Hero of Gettysburg But That Law Compels Officials to Make Effort to Collect Amount Due.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) ALBANY (N. Y.) Jan. 29.—The fame of Gen. Daniel E. Sickles as a soldier should not deter New York State in its efforts to collect the $22,476 unaccounted for by the general as chairman of the New York Monuments Commission. This is the view advanced by Atty-Gen. Carmody in a letter today to Mrs. Helen D. Longstreet of Gettysburg, Pa., widow of the Confederate general.

In a telegram to Atty-Gen. Carmody Mrs. Longstreet offered to pay the $22,476 from "the respect and maintained followers of Lee."

Atty-Gen. Carmody's letter says: "Your sympathetic and patriotic expressions do justice to your heart, but they do violence to the facts in this case. Gen. Sickles is being prosecuted by the State of New York for converting to his own use the sum of $22,476. This money came into his hands as chairman of the State Monuments Commission to be used, among other purposes, for the erection of monuments to mark the resting places on the field of Gettysburg of the brave soldiers who fell in defense of their country, and to provide for a celebration upon the field of Gettysburg, in which those living might participate at the State's expense in a fitting manner."

"Gen. Sickles appropriated this amount to his own use. This he has not attempted to justify or to defend, and admitting that he took the State's money for private use without authority of law, an act which, under our laws, and under the laws of all civilized governments, means stealing. He was given his own time to repay this amount, and that time was extended at his suggestion, without

INDIGESTION AND RHEUMATISM

PEOPLE WITH GOOD DIGESTION DO NOT HAVE RHEUMATISM.

The blood is the product of digestion. Whatever sort of food is digested in the stomach is absorbed into the blood. If the food is badly digested this is also absorbed into the blood. If the food is in the stomach before digestion or during digestion, the acids are absorbed into the blood.

These acids in the blood produce a condition known as rheumatism. The acids are liable to produce microscopic crystals. These crystals are deposited in the ligaments and cartilages, causing rheumatism of the joints. Sometimes in the bones, producing periodic pains every time a storm approaches. Sometimes in the muscles, producing lumbago, stiff neck, myalgia, and muscular rheumatism generally.

Peruna Corrects Digestion. The reason that Peruna relieves such cases is easy to understand. Peruna corrects digestion. Peruna corrects digestion partly by hurrying it. Peruna does not furnish any artificial digestant, it simply assists Nature in doing its own digesting.

In this way the products of digestion are more normal. The blood is not filled with imperfectly digested food. No acids accumulate in the stomach while Peruna is being taken. Thus rheumatism is prevented.

It is a great deal better to prevent a disease than to try to cure it. But even after rheumatism has begun the condition that caused it ought to be removed if possible.

Good Digestion Stops Rheumatism. The first thing to do is to secure good digestion, then if it is necessary specific medicines for rheumatism may be taken. But until the digestion is made perfect it is of little or no use to take medicines for rheumatism. To produce good digestion Peruna should be taken.

any desire to embarrass him, and with the full appreciation of the claim which he has upon this nation for the great service he rendered in the rebellion.

These services cannot be overestimated, but even the fame of the soldier must not be used as a cloak or protection for the commission of crime, and it is nothing less than misdirected sympathy to undertake as to confuse the question involved as to make an ordinary prosecution for a crime seem like persecution and to elevate as a martyr a person who confesses his dereliction.

"New York State appreciates her heroes and feels humiliated at the spectacle which this case presents. New York State also respects her laws and seeks to enforce them in a spirit of equality to all."

"I trust this brief statement of the facts will show you how erroneous have been your views, how misdirected your sympathy and how misdirected your criticism."

Elective Harbor Commission Says Fifteen Board.

Acrimonious Session Mixes Things Considerably.

Would Now Put Matter Up to Committee of Fifty.

The Charter Revision Committee of Fifteen reversed itself yesterday and by a vote of six to two declared in favor of recommending a charter amendment providing for the election of three members, to hold office for two years and to receive a monthly salary of $300 each.

The vote came at the conclusion of a spirited and at times acrimonious debate during which Chairman Kemp was accused by John T. Gaffey of obstructing the work of the committee by the intervention of technical rulings, and with being partial and partisan. The chair interposed a vigorous denial and declared that his duty is to facilitate as far as possible the work of the committee.

Bradner W. Lee, chairman of the Citizens' Committee of One Thousand and of the Executive Committee of Fifty was requested by vote of the subcommittee to convene the Executive Committee at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, at which time matters relating to the harbor tangle and the entire question probably again thrown open for debate. Inasmuch as the twin points as to whether the Harbor Commission shall be elective or appointive and whether its members shall serve gratis or be paid are regarded as the most important in connection with harbor matters and as there is a wide divergence of opinion in the Executive Committee, the meeting Saturday is likely to provide an additional exhibition of daylight fireworks.

The Harbor Investigating Committee, which is responsible directly to the Committee of One Thousand, has strongly recommended the elective and salaried system, and the vote yesterday is a victory for the investigation. If the Executive Committee express the Revision Committee, the fight will be carried before the whole Committee of One Thousand.

HOW IT STANDS.

These votes are on the amendment of John T. Gaffey to make the Harbor Commission elective and salaried were Mrs. Feltz, John T. Gaffey, Frank Doherty, Marce Helman, Henry H. Call and E. T. Johnson, J. Willis Booth and Lucius Chas. voted in the negative, and Col. George N. Black declined the issue on the ground that he thought the whole matter should go before the larger committee. The committee is actually much more evenly divided than the vote of six to two indicates, and on complete roll call probably stands eight to six in favor of elective and paid commissioners. This, at least, is the opinion of Doherty, whose motion to pass the bill to the Executive Committee without action was lost in a mass of objections, cross motions and general confusion.

"CHILDREN" SAY NO.

In the meeting Booth called the proceeding "childish," and the chairman responded with a bon mot which sounded like: "Of course it is, but you're the children." Taken altogether the session proved a fine object lesson in how not to make a charter, and several members left the classroom openly expressing their displeasure.

The scrap started early when the chair ruled out of order Mrs. Feltz's motion to amend a motion before the house which had been brought to it by unanimous consent from the previous meeting on Monday.

This is a report of the Drafting Committee which provided for the appointment of a Board of Harbor Commissioners, only the president thereof to receive a salary.

YERBAL CONFLICT.

Chas. moved that the salary and appointment question be postponed from consideration and Doherty went over the roll call in an effort to prove a hopeless division of opinion. Mrs. Feltz told the committee that she had one exception every witness appearing

They Tell Mother of Boy Who Died Here They'll Give Her Ten Dollars for Each Cent Officially Surrendered.

The idea some persons possess of the Far West was expressed with much candor in a letter received yesterday by Public Administrator Bryson from Mrs. James Costello, whose son, Charles M. Costello, died June 27, last, at Patton, leaving over $2000 cash in Bryson's hands.

Mrs. Costello says her neighbors told her they would give her $10 for every cent she got from Los Angeles, once the public officials here got their hands upon her son's property. At that rate she will have $2,000,000—a considerable amount to win on a small wager.

The woman thanks Bryson for giving her "a square deal," and closes with "I would rather have my boy, and not a cent of money, though, Costello died violently insane after having been at Patton only a few days. The ailment is believed to have been brought on by over-study of sociological problems."

Girl Nearly Collapses Under Fire of Questions.

A world-wide quest for happiness following the severing of his domestic ties, and the final discovery in Paris of a sympathetic companion in the person of Rita Sustana, a flower girl, was narrated on the witness stand yesterday afternoon by Charles Victor Hall in the divorce case against him in Judge Monroe's court.

Mrs. Sustana, who preceded Hall as a witness, was excused from the courtroom in mid-afternoon, when it became apparent that she was on the point of collapse from her ordeal.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Le Crone, her constant attendants assisted her out of the building and she was hurried home in Hall's motor car. Under the rapid-fire questioning of Judge Monroe, continued for more than one Woman Whose Testimony Would Have Sent "Tiger Man" to Gallows for Wife-Murder But for Lieut.-Gov. Wallace Retains Children. No Truth in Charges, Says Judge.

Mrs. Elsie Sammann, principal witness against George Figueroa, the "tiger man," whose sentence to be hanged was commuted to life imprisonment by Lieut.-Gov. Wallace, was awarded the custody of her two minor children by Judge Monroe in the Superior Court yesterday.

C. F. Sammann, the father, from whom his wife obtained a divorce in 1902, filed a petition asking that Frederico and Agnes, the two children, be taken from the custody of the mother because of her alleged habits.

The hearing was concluded early yesterday morning. Judge Monroe said among other things: "I can see no reason whatever, as far as the evidence in the case discloses, for taking the children from the custody of their mother. In my opinion there is not one word of truth in these charges that have been made against the mother."

"The other hand a number of reputable married women living in the city have testified that they Bishop-Miller People Acquire Fine Holding on Hill Street, Between Tenth and Eleventh for Cash.

The Bishop-Miller syndicate, including R. P. Bishop, W. T. Bishop and Ed. R. Miller, added to its close-in realty holdings yesterday through the purchase of $5,150 feet on the east side of Hill street, ninety-five feet north of Eleventh street, for a given consideration of $95,000 cash. Mrs. William A. Cheney, the seller of the site, had owned the property for a period of twenty-five years, and realized an enormous profit over the original purchase price. Richard M. Bishop represented both parties to the transaction.

The lot immediately adjoins on the north ninety-five feet acquired by the same syndicate from S. F. Mulford and J. Frank Walters several weeks ago, and which lies for its southern boundary line 100 feet of frontage on Eleventh street. The two purchases combined give the buyers a large and valuable holding at the northeast corner of Hill and Eleventh streets, with frontages of 150 feet on each of these thoroughfares. The site is directly across from the great square owned by H. E. Huntington south of Eleventh street, between Hill and Main.

BOUGHT TO FORGET.

"I started out from Los Angeles mentally distracted by my domestic troubles on a world tour in search of something that would help me to forget," the girl magnate began. "I didn't care much where I went or how far, but I decided I would go a long way. I had taken an interest in French while I was in college and always had retained an interest in the language. However, I had forgotten most of what I had learned in youth."

"On the way across the ocean I decided that I would travel a while and then go to Paris and take up the study of French. It seemed to me that in the diligent pursuit of the study I might find relief from my troubles. When I went to Paris I enrolled in a school and hired a private teacher. I gave all of my attention and energy to the study of French, applying myself diligently to it for six to eight hours a day."

HE MEETS RITA.

"After I had been in Paris about two months I went into a shop one day and bought a theater ticket. I noticed that the young woman who waited on me was studying a book on English conversation. I spoke to her and told her that I was studying French. In a few days I went back. She suggested that we might be of assistance to each other in our studies. That is how I met Mrs. Sustana."

"Not especially, but I soon discovered that she was ambitious. She sang for me and I learned that she had a wonderful voice. She also demonstrated by her sketches that she had exceptional talent as an artist."

"When did you begin buying things for her?"

"When my proposal to educate her was accepted by her and her mother."

"Did you ever go with her to buy her clothes?"

"Yes."

"What do you know about women's clothes?"

"I know when they are harmonious with the woman's disposition and position in life and when they fit."

"Did you ever go with your wife to assist her in selecting her clothes?"

"Yes, when we were first married."

Mrs. Sustana previously had been questioned at length about the clothes that Hall had bought for her. She

CLEAN BILL FOR SOLDIERS HOME

Senatorial Committee Finishes Against Main Charges.

Would Transfer Control War Department.

Minor Changes in Code Are Recommended.

Recommendations that the Public branch of the National House for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers be transferred from the present board management to the War Department and that a number of minor changes be made in the conduct of the house comprise the gist of the subcommittee of the Senatorial Committee on Military Affairs, made yesterday.

The report finds against the transfer of the house to the War Department, and that its general conduct is good.

In addition to the report, which signed by Senators Jones of Washington, Chamberlain of Oregon and C. W. McNamara of California, a proposed bill, which shall transfer the house to the War Department, is being introduced.

The subcommittee agreed its report in this city November 18, 1912. Part of the session was held in the city of Washington, where a statement was taken to the Soldiers Home. The committee was aided by investigation by Henry A. C. Jones, J. J. Steadman and E. L. Hawk, a pointed by Judge Alfred R. Jones, commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., represent that organization of veterans.

"NO GROUND FOR COMPLAINT."

The Senatorial subcommittee findings says: "There seems to be no ground for complaint in the conduct of the house. While there may be some basis for this feeling, we do not believe there is substantial ground for complaint."

The letter of rules made for the government of the house twenty or thirty years ago when conditions were entirely different than now, is largely responsible for this feeling.

It developed, also, in the session that the conditions in the hospital a year or so ago were deplorable. As the result of an inspection by an officer of the regular army, a doctor in charge was removed, and the present physician, Maj. R. F. Smith, was placed in control. His report on the condition of the house, and his charge to a marked degree, seem to feel that he has a personal interest in the house, and are generally contented and happy. The general condition in the house seems to be about as good as it can be. The doctor's assistants are to share with him in the good and evil of the house."

The report states that the complaint about the quality of the mattresses appeared justified when the charges were made a year or so ago, but that the mattresses now in use are good and satisfactory.

GRANT CHARGE BASELESS.

"There were many suggestions that misappropriation of money in property," continues the report. "As far as the present officials are concerned, the charges are baseless without substantial foundation. The report states that the suggestion of misappropriation of money is baseless rumor and suspicion."

"Our accounts found to be correct, neat in appearance and properly maintained. There was no evidence of wrongdoing. The accounts are correct and the general condition is nothing wrong in this it is a source of much dissatisfaction and should be discontinued."

"Conditions in the general house are satisfactory. The food often badly cooked and served. The are two stitings at each meal of about 150 men served at each of 114 tables of water. We are to add that far more coffee should

SOUTH PASADENA LOOKS COYLY TO LOS ANGELES

CAMPAIN will be launched within a few days having in view the annexation of South Pasadena to Los Angeles. Already the plan has been informally discussed by many of the residents of the former city. Neighborhood meetings will be held and committees appointed to work in the six precincts of South Pasadena.

According to those in favor of annexation, the first thing to be done is to secure a consensus of opinion. If the residents oppose joining this city the matter will be dropped.

"We have an asset to grind," the question to be decided is what is best for South Pasadena," said Attorney Louis Luckel yesterday. He has been talking with some of his neighbors in a quiet way for some time. While he favors annexation personally, he declares he does not approve any attempt to run counter to the wishes of the majority.

In order to determine how the citizens feel a series of mass-meetings will be held in different sections of South Pasadena.

Among the advantages to be derived by annexation, it is stated that the foremost is securing the use of

Imperial Valley Land at Today's Prices Will Show About Three Times as Much Net Profit Per Year as Any Other Ranch Property in California

LOS ANGELES EXAMINER

$1,000,000 EACH MONTH IMPERIAL VALLEY OUTPUT

Record of 1912 in Marketing of Crops is Expected to Be Exceeded This Year

NOW LEADS IN BUTTER

138,000 Acres More Land to Come Under Ditch as the Result of Development

EL CENTRO, Jan. 28.—It was estimated last year the valley, with an average of a million dollars worth of produce a month, and it seems certain that it will make considerable advance this year. It is in this valley that the greatest development work of the year in the southwest is being carried on. That of putting water on about 138,000 acres of new land. It is impossible to say at this time how much of this land will be made productive this year, but there are hopes that much of it can be ready for crops next year.

And right now is the time to get in there. Here are the facts in the case: a few years ago when Imperial Valley was reclaimed from the desert the settlers poured in and filed on the land. Everyone exerted his privilege to the limit—820 acres—then he had his aunts, uncles and cousins use their rights. Today half the population is land poor—they're swinging hundreds of acres without sufficient capital to properly farm it. Imperial Valley is best adapted to intensive farming—it's an economic waste to handle it otherwise. But what's the actual situation today? You find one man handling from 820 to 1000 acres. Now these people have got to let go. They know that 80 acres properly farmed will show a bigger annual net profit than 820 acres "butchered." But with the idea of making a speculative killing as well as a profit from straight ranching they loaded up to the limit. Today they're anxious to unload part of their holdings at a sacrifice. That's where you come in, Mr. Homeseeker. That's why the headline of this "ad" tells the literal truth. Look over the entire State—get thoroughly posted on values—then inspect our Imperial Valley listings.

the neighborhood of Mrs. Sammann have come forward to testify that she is a good woman. If there had been anything wrong going on in that household they would have known of it, and that is meaning no disrespect to the woman. The application is denied.

Some time ago Mrs. Sammann appeared in Capt. Fredericks for protection. She declared she was the object of persecution by some of her relatives because of her testimony against Figueroa. The matter was entrusted to Deputy District Attorney Keetch for investigation. He appeared for the woman in the proceedings brought by the former husband to have the boy and girl taken from her care and placed in some institution.

Mrs. Sammann is the natural daughter of Juan Carrera, a wealthy land owner of the early days of the State. He was prominent in San Luis Obispo county, and left a large fortune. Mrs. Sammann is said to have spent most of her share, which was about $10,000.

When Figueroa was placed on trial upon a charge of murdering Sarah Pughley Figueroa, a bride of a week, Mrs. Sammann testified she saw the defendant shoot his young wife. The defendant did not take the stand. He was found guilty and sentenced to be hanged.

After several reprieves secured by his powerful friends, and relatives, Lieut.-Gov. Wallace commuted the sentence to life imprisonment. Mrs. Sammann's character has been successfully attacked in the proceedings to take her children from her, attaches of the District Attorney's office believe the next step would have been to petition the Governor to pardon the "tiger man" on account of the alleged character of the principal witness against him.

Deputy District Attorney Keetch stated yesterday that Lieut.-Gov. Wallace in his presence and that of Deputy Byron Hanna, made the assertion that he knew Mrs. Sammann was a woman of bad character. Keetch declares that there is nothing in the record of the case to show it.

Now that a Superior Court Judge finds that the allegations against the woman were not substantiated by evidence, it is believed by members of the County Board that the woman's friends will have considerable difficulty in getting a further commutation of the sentence of the man convicted of wife murder.

POMONA'S NEW PLAN.

Arranged to Organize Chamber of Commerce to Merge All Other Bodies Whose Object Is to Boost.

POMONA, Jan. 28.—The formation of a Chamber of Commerce here to combine all the forces that work for the advancement of the community, is being agitated by prominent business men and residents and there is a desire that some immediate action toward this end be taken. The proposed organization would be the Board of Trade, the Business Men's Association and the Pomona Realty Board and any like organizations. Each of these, however, would be conducted as a special department or in such a way that the enlarged organization will have no appreciable effect upon the methods by which each are at present operated.

The numerous things which might be accomplished by such a reorganization would be the care of tourists, boosting for the State and ocean-to-ocean highways, good roads for this city and valley, the improvement of the city with ornamental street lighting, more extensive planting of shade trees, the bringing of Pomona of capital for new business enterprises, and numerous projects that tend to the upbuilding and advancement of the city. Mayor Matthews and the president of the three first named organizations as well as many others heartily favor the movement.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Hill, who died at her home, No. 1454 West Holt avenue, yesterday, was held from the Todd Chapel on North Garey avenue this afternoon at 2 o'clock, and interment was made in Pomona Cemetery. The deceased had resided here for nineteen years, having come from Nebraska. She is survived by eight sons, William of Spokane, Thomas of Pomona, A. B. of Riverside and Charles of Los Angeles; two sons in Colorado, and two in Nebraska.

The banquet given by the Civic section of the Pomona Elks at the clubhouse was much enjoyed by those present. Special guests were Hon. Charles G. Neely and wife of Claremont, and the City Councilmen and their wives. Judge Neely delivered an interesting address upon the subject, "Social Welfare Service."

A class of between sixty and seventy pupils will be graduated from the grade schools of this city and will be ready for entrance to the High School next month. The school work is progressing satisfactorily and the attendance at all of the grades, as well as the kindergartens and High School, is larger than ever.

BOTH LOYAL TO ALLEGED CROOK.

TWO WOMEN SEEK DEVOTED TO MAN IN JAIL.

Jewelry of One Who Asserts She Is Legal Wife Is Blamed by Other for His Perfidiousness—Admits Common Law Marriage, Doubts Protection Story.

Whatever the powers of fascination exercised by J. D. Huntington in his dealing with femininity in virtually every large city in the United States, where he is said to have swindled scores, he apparently has lost not one whit through his incarceration in the County Jail here. The one fact that stands out most clearly is the apparent devotion to two women, who, according to their own stories, have caused for despairing instead of loving him.

The situation has been brought about by the jealousy of a woman who would rather use the object of her affections in jail than to know he was in the arms of another woman. Both women claim him as husband, while Huntington asserts at the individual pretensions of each. He was arraigned last yesterday afternoon before Justice Reeve and asked time to prepare for trial, which was granted.

Miss Annie Colvin, who is held as a witness against Huntington, talked freely yesterday of her relations with the prisoner and excoriated the other woman, Mrs. Minnie Mansfield, who says she is the lawful wife. For her part in having caused the arrest of Huntington, she came out of a grilling examination yesterday unflinching and without having said one word against the man for love of whom she has sacrificed friends and social standing. She did not refuse to talk. She answered questions for an hour, but when the answers were analyzed it was found she had revealed nothing.

"I met Huntington last August when he was known as McCauley," Miss Colvin said. "We talked over the marriage question and found that our ideas on common law marriage agreed. We went to Boston and there assumed the relations we have since continued. We went to virtually every large city in the country and seldom stayed more than a few days at any one place. My husband would advertise and then go and see his customers, taking with him samples of ore, which he sold were from mines in Mexico. He had no certificates of stock and the life was somewhat uncertain. Sometimes we had plenty of money, at others we did not come from the next meal was coming from my husband's pocket. He did not handle much money, but kept me in the things I needed when he had the money. I don't suppose I had as much as one $20 bill in my possession at any one time while I was with him."

Miss Colvin, in explaining the methods used by Huntington, said she did not know of any extensive dealings with women. According to her story, wherein she sought to protect Huntington at every point, his schemes were for the most part worked on men. She said she could see no harm or wrong in a man assuming any name that best suited his purpose.

Referring to the woman who says she is the lawful wife of Huntington, Miss Colvin said Huntington met her in Honolulu. She was somewhat unstable, and she said she could see no harm or wrong in a man assuming any name that best suited his purpose.

Huntington had given me. Subsequently Mrs. Mansfield went through a trunk belonging to Huntington and there discovered some lace correspondence to that of which the cap was made. She guessed that we had been together and that evening there was a three-handed quarrel which resulted in my leaving the house.

"I do not take any stock in this story of a desire to protect society from a swindler or anything of that kind. I love him just as I have loved him ever since I knew him first and I intend to stick by him in his trouble."

Detectives talked to Miss Colvin again last night in an effort to elicit information that might justify them in holding Huntington on a white slavery charge.

It may have been the steam roller that ran over Roosevelt in the fall. Any day W. C. Rowland had filed suit in the Justice Court against Gench & Johnson for $125.00, alleged to be due on a rental on a roller for the two months immediately following October 11, last, when the contract was drawn up. A. F. George signed the claim to Rowland.

BOTH LOYAL TO ALLEGED CROOK.

TWO WOMEN SEEK DEVOTED TO MAN IN JAIL.

Jewelry of One Who Asserts She Is Legal Wife Is Blamed by Other for His Perfidiousness—Admits Common Law Marriage, Doubts Protection Story.

Whatever the powers of fascination exercised by J. D. Huntington in his dealing with femininity in virtually every large city in the United States, where he is said to have swindled scores, he apparently has lost not one whit through his incarceration in the County Jail here. The one fact that stands out most clearly is the apparent devotion to two women, who, according to their own stories, have caused for despairing instead of loving him.

The situation has been brought about by the jealousy of a woman who would rather use the object of her affections in jail than to know he was in the arms of another woman. Both women claim him as husband, while Huntington asserts at the individual pretensions of each. He was arraigned last yesterday afternoon before Justice Reeve and asked time to prepare for trial, which was granted.

Miss Annie Colvin, who is held as a witness against Huntington, talked freely yesterday of her relations with the prisoner and excoriated the other woman, Mrs. Minnie Mansfield, who says she is the lawful wife. For her part in having caused the arrest of Huntington, she came out of a grilling examination yesterday unflinching and without having said one word against the man for love of whom she has sacrificed friends and social standing. She did not refuse to talk. She answered questions for an hour, but when the answers were analyzed it was found she had revealed nothing.

"I met Huntington last August when he was known as McCauley," Miss Colvin said. "We talked over the marriage question and found that our ideas on common law marriage agreed. We went to Boston and there assumed the relations we have since continued. We went to virtually every large city in the country and seldom stayed more than a few days at any one place. My husband would advertise and then go and see his customers, taking with him samples of ore, which he sold were from mines in Mexico. He had no certificates of stock and the life was somewhat uncertain. Sometimes we had plenty of money, at others we did not come from the next meal was coming from my husband's pocket. He did not handle much money, but kept me in the things I needed when he had the money. I don't suppose I had as much as one $20 bill in my possession at any one time while I was with him."

Miss Colvin, in explaining the methods used by Huntington, said she did not know of any extensive dealings with women. According to her story, wherein she sought to protect Huntington at every point, his schemes were for the most part worked on men. She said she could see no harm or wrong in a man assuming any name that best suited his purpose.

Referring to the woman who says she is the lawful wife of Huntington, Miss Colvin said Huntington met her in Honolulu. She was somewhat unstable, and she said she could see no harm or wrong in a man assuming any name that best suited his purpose.

Huntington had given me. Subsequently Mrs. Mansfield went through a trunk belonging to Huntington and there discovered some lace correspondence to that of which the cap was made. She guessed that we had been together and that evening there was a three-handed quarrel which resulted in my leaving the house.

"I do not take any stock in this story of a desire to protect society from a swindler or anything of that kind. I love him just as I have loved him ever since I knew him first and I intend to stick by him in his trouble."

FUNDS FOR MCKINLEY HOME.

Martyred President's Birthday Observed by Selling Carnations and by a Dramatic Recital.

McKinley Day was observed yesterday by the McKinley Boys' Home in making a determined campaign to raise funds for increasing the efficiency of the institution. The incentive was the $100,000 set aside for the home by C. A. Canfield, to be paid over by the donor in duplicating other sums as rapidly as they are raised.

Thirty boys from the home were selling carnations on the streets throughout the day, assisted by a committee of young ladies composed of Miss Lucy Powers, Miss Ada Potts, Miss Marian Boogan, Miss Sara Smith, Miss Joan Moloney, Miss Nell Griffin. Several hundred contributions were also placed in the business houses, and last night Mrs. Harriet Labadie gave a dramatic interpretation in the Auditorium for the benefit of the home.

The Endowment Committee of the home consists of Mrs. Florence Collins Porter, Mrs. E. R. Hurlbut, Mrs. G. A. Brock, Mrs. Lyman Parwell, Mrs. F. C. Howe, Mrs. Alice Gregory, Mrs. E. W. Gilmore, Mrs. W. A. Lamb, Mrs. H. H. Whitte.

It was not possible to get any information last night as to what the probable receipts of the day were.

EATING AMERICAN RAISES PAY.

Dr. Woods Hutchinson Says Good Heavy Food Improves Health and Strength of Workmen.

(St. Louis Globe Democrat.) A bus the danger of overeating. There is no such thing, at least, so Dr. Woods Hutchinson told the members of the City Club at luncheon.

"We don't believe any more in the danger of overeating," he said. "Under-eating is the thing to be guarded against."

That theory and practice go hand in hand with the iconoclastic physician, was demonstrated during a luncheon at which the doctor proved himself a worthy trencher-man.

"Eating American is the prime requisite in the manufacture of man," he said. "The kinds of foods that mother used to cook are the proper fuel for stocking the human engine. Meat, potatoes, bread, butter, buckwheat cakes, pie, cake, sausage, coffee with real cream—these are the things which furnish rich and abundant diet calculated to increase human efficiency to its utmost."

The average lifetime of the American who consumes these foods is forty-six years, while the vegetarian Hindu on his spare, ethereal diet averages but twenty-two years. Japanese laborers, when they come to this country, get but 16 cents per day, because they haven't got the working power to earn more.

Fell Into the Trap.

(Topska State Journal.) He had returned home in the evening, tired and ready for a restful hour or two.

"John, my love," said his little wife, sweetly, "did you post that letter I gave you this morning?"

"Yes, my pet," said John, hiding his conscience-stricken face behind the newspaper.

"Well, what is your answer?" still more sweetly.

"Wh-what is what?" gasped John, with a look of bewilderment.

"That letter was addressed to me," exclaimed John.

And then, like a foolish man, he fell into the trap and produced the letter from his pocket to read. The envelope was not addressed to him; but a long and severe lecture was, shortly after.

THIS is the motto that clings in every woman's thoughts. The dearest wish of the queen of the home is to have her own— to tread her own verdured porch, pluck her own flowers, decorate her own rooms, set her own table, serve her own guests, sit in her own parlor, and, when the joys and trials of the day are past, to lay her head on her own pillow, in her own bed, under her own roof-tree, and close her eyes in restful slumber.

Arlington Square Has Beautiful Bungalow Homes

LETTERS TO "THE TIMES"

Now Foster's Reply Henderson

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 29.—[To the Editor of the Times:] In the Express of January 28 Frank G. Henderson, president of the Public Service Commission, claims that the statement I made to the effect that the Public Service Commission was not planning to serve all water users in Los Angeles is untrue.

If Mr. Henderson will look over his letter files he will find letters written by me requesting the Public Service Commission to inform the Board of Public Utilities whether it is their intention to extend the water mains to San Pedro and Terminal Island, and if so, what is the shortest time in which they expect to do so. We also endeavored to get them to commit themselves as to when they would be able to give relief to the people in the southwest, who are now supplied by the Hawthorne Water Company and the Vermont Square Water Company; also the people north of the city around Sherman and York boulevard, and in each case their answer has been an evasive one. These people had a very inadequate service last summer and it will be worse this next summer, owing to the increase of population. There are approximately 100,000 people in this city who are compelled to take water from private water companies at a price of 30 to 100 per cent higher than the city's rates, and unless these people get a greater quantity of water this next summer than they had last there is great danger of an epidemic. These private companies find it impossible to secure money to make extensions or increase their water supply because of the uncertainty of the city's intentions. The Board of Public Utilities has endeavored repeatedly to secure a definite statement from the Public Service Commission with reference to relief for districts supplied by independent water companies so that we would be in a position to compel such companies to furnish adequate service.

The attitude assumed by the Public Service Commission places the Board of Public Utilities in an unenviable position.

First, because the Public Service Commission, in their zeal to establish a record for cheap service, have adopted a rule that they will not extend their mains into any district within the city unless the residents of such district pay 80 cents per linear foot for the pipe, plus the usual connection charges, whereas the Board of Public Utilities is facing the rate to be charged by the independent companies, must, in appraising their properties, take into consideration the cost of their mains, etc., and allow them a reasonable rate of interest on their investment. In doing this, naturally the rates are going to be considerably higher than the city rates.

Second, why is the Public Service Commission so anxious to furnish conduits, etc., for a high rate to the people who are crying for city water, and if you could have been in the office of the Board of Public Utilities last summer, and heard the pitiful complaints—all of which we investigated and found were true—you would say, as I do, let the outsiders construct and pay for their own conduits and compel our Public Service Commission to give our own people an adequate water service, and give such service without assessing a charge of 80 cents per foot.

Suppose the Public Service Commission reduces the water rate, say 15 per cent, or the minimum rate from 15 cents per cubic foot to 10 cents, would a poor mechanic (buying his own home and paying for it on the installment plan) about thirty-three years to get his 140 paid for the main, or if you figure 6 per cent interest on the $40, which would be $2.40 per year, his loss of interest is twice as much as his saving in the cost of the deep drilling. If the attitude is maintained, it will retard the growth of all the new sections besides doing an injustice to those who can not afford to pay. If you desire to help those who need help for God's sake advise the Public Service Commission to give our people water and save the city from an epidemic.

THOMAS FOULKE,
(Board of Public Utilities.)

THAT "HIGH LINE"

Big Cost and Little Return—An Outrageous Proposition—What Engineer Quinion Says.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 27.—[To the Editor of the Times:] Believing that the taxpayers of this city should understand the truth about the commercial aspect of the proposed Graham High Line, I submit a few figures for their consideration.

The whole matter can be plainly stated as follows: Taking the cost of the aqueduct at $25,000,000 and the amount it will deliver at 25,000 inches, makes the cost of an inch of water at the end of the aqueduct $1250. The continuation of the aqueduct to Glendale, and if it cost, it is said, $1,500,000, and if it carries 4000 inches, will make an additional cost per inch of $723. Every inch of water carried on the high line will deprive this city of $11.73 per year for loss of power, because if it is carried on the high line, it can not be dropped through the power plant into the San Fernando reservoir. This makes an additional cost per inch of $11.73, capitalized at 4 per cent, or $312. In addition to this the return waters, at least one-fourth of 4000 inches, will be lost to this city. This water has cost $1250 an inch, so that the loss under this head may be figured at $1250 divided by 3, or $416. The actual cost to the city water for an inch of water carried to Glendale, will be as follows:

Cost at Westmouth $1250
Continuation of aqueduct to Glendale 723
Loss of power 312
Loss of return waters 312

Total $2588
Think of it! An inch of water delivered at the end of the high line will actually cost the city of Los Angeles $2588. Now, what are we to get for it? Two cents an inch an hour. For how many hours? The kernel of the whole matter. Those who have already an inadequate supply of water will only take as much as is absolutely necessary for them when their own supply is short. Those who have no supply now will only use water at 2 cents an inch an hour for the irrigation season, about six months of the year, and none but those raising very remunerative crops, such as citrus fruits, could afford to pay for water at this price.

Again, water can be pumped over much of the area proposed to be covered for 1 1/4 cents an inch an hour, and no one will pay 2 cents when he can buy at 1 1/4 cents.

Taking all these things into account, it is evident that the widest estimate of the amount of water that would actually be paid for would not exceed four months' constant flow of the entire amount of 4000 inches.

The return, then, on this investment would be 2 cents an inch an hour for 120 days, or $57.60, which amount, divided by $2584, is a 2.2 per cent.

How does this appeal as a business proposition to the taxpayers of Los Angeles? Why should the city of Los Angeles build a continuation of its aqueduct for the benefit of other communities? Let them pay for their own aqueduct as we have done for ours. This scheme is a continuation of the old "High Line" and is not good business to recommend it, and it is to be hoped that the people of Los Angeles will vote it down on election day.

Consulting Engineer.

(Special Correspondence of The Times.)

DOUGLAS (Ariz.) Jan. 21.—The seventh annual convention of the Arizona State Federation of Women's Clubs, is to be held in this city January 21 to 23. Among the attendants will be Mrs. Percy V. Penney, president of the National Federation of Women's Clubs, and Gov. George W. P. Hunt will attend the opening session. Club work through Arizona is prosperous and trending toward the state as well as domestic betterment in the community. Represented by the various clubs of Douglas, Phoenix, Flagstaff, Prescott, Sonoran, Tempe, Tucson, Wickenburg, Wilcox, and Yuma. Representatives of the clubs are expected from Phoenix and of three from Tucson. In the afternoon of the first day, delegates are to be taken to the new automobile camp, through the Mexican town of Pima, through the smelters and to the military post and in the evening a reception will be given in honor of Mrs. Penney.

SUFFERING FROM COLD.

Never before along the border has there been weather such as during the last fortnight. The suffering has been intense among the Mexicans who have been afflicted only by the effects of the Salvation Army. It was reported, however, that even here, the Mexicans, who have been through the snow, had money enough to attend moving picture shows. Jesus, who lived in the snow and froze both so that they had to be amputated, several unprotected horses belonging to the Mexican Federal force at Agua Prieta froze to death. Water tanks were frozen along the El Paso and Northwestern line, necessitating the closing for several days of the local train at this point. Reports from the upper Gila district tell that the Gila River at Red Rock was nearly frozen over.

RETURNING BACK IMMIGRANTS.

A number of Mexican paupers have been returned to the state of Sonora, including some women who sent their children out to beg as soon as they could. One Mexican woman, who was returned to Sonora, who observed that he had heard of the accommodations of the American jails and that he would not try to make his native land any more. It has been figured out, by some officials that Chacon has been sent to the country where he had been provided at Sonora with accommodations in the hotel in the Southwest.

ARRESTED FOR TREASON.

Upon an order signed by Gen. Huerta, stationed at Torreon, Sonora, the R. Rubio of the Mexican Federal army has been arrested at Agua Prieta on a charge of treason and has been taken to Torreon for trial by military court. Rubio alleges that the complaint is based upon the personal enmity of Martinez, who he claims to have defeated in battle when the latter was a leader of rebel forces.

PORTS CLOSED TO CATTLE.

The port of Douglas has been absolutely closed to the importation of cattle, even though they be from Texas. It is stated that the port of Douglas will likewise be closed. Ordinarily cattle are admitted in the winter weather, but Texas fever ticks have been found upon cattle imported for passage only lately.

CRIMINALS BETWEEN GIDERS.

Hugh Macpherson was seriously injured Tuesday at the Calumet and Arizona smelter, crushed between two steel rollers, and it is probable that his injuries will prove fatal.

TELEPHONE WAR ENDS.

Peace has been declared between the City Council and the Mountain Telephone Company. A threat that the city would sue the company for carrying through and the city would maintain its demand that the company secure a new franchise. The company last Tuesday threw open to the public its new $75,000 exchange, which at the present time are 150 phones.

Wrote for the Thermometer.

Dr. Starbuck. A physician tells a story of a brilliant doctor in a small town, who had a household with a nice thermometer and told the people the temperature of the weather. When making his rounds one day he observed his thermometer hanging in the room. He inquired of the woman of the house if it was the thermometer he had told her to hang there. "I do," was the reply. "I hang the thing right up and watch it carefully to see if it has not got too high."

And you do when the temperature is high?"

"No, sir," answered the woman. "The air of one faithful to a thermometer is not too high I take it, and I put it outside until it is cool."

ABOUT THOSE NURSES.
Judge Monroe questioned Hall at length about his trip abroad with Mrs. Stewart, a widow, and Miss Bennett, a nurse living in Santa Barbara. Hall admitted that he took the young women with him to London in the summer of 1910 and paid all of their expenses and took along his motor car to add to their pleasure.

"Were you ill at the time and did you need the services of the nurse?" Judge Monroe continued.

"No, I was in good health. I know that what I did was unconventional."

"Then why did you do it?"

"I was trying an experiment. I thought that I had discovered a pleasant companion in one of them, but I was mistaken."

Hall will continue his testimony this morning.

THE FIRST KISS.

While Miss Stetson was on the witness stand yesterday afternoon Judge Monroe asked her when she first kissed her.

"It was in London," she replied.

"Not in Paris, where he first met you?"

"No."

On cross-examination by Attorney Goudge, Miss Stetson said that she wrote to her mother in Paris several times a week and frequently sent her money.

"Where do you get the money?" inquired the attorney.

"What is your mother doing now to earn a living?"

"Then you are supporting her?"

"No, I do not regard it that way."

DIRECT EXAMINATION.

Miss Stetson went on the witness stand at 11 o'clock with the same self-possession manifested the previous day.

"What studies did you take up in Paris?" Attorney Moore asked, resuming the examination.

"Painting, piano and singing."

"Your studies in London?" were asked.

"English and music."

"After Mr. Hall told you and your mother reached New York was any thing said about where you intended to live?"

Hall at first intended to live in New York and began looking around for a house.

"Why did he change his mind?"

"The weather was so cold that we decided to go to Florida."

Attorney Moore introduced in evidence a picture of the open air bathing pool built by Hall for his ward at his Tampa home. Mrs. Hall's attorney examined the picture, stating that the pool was sheltered from public view by a high bank and by banana trees, rose bushes and other shrubbery.

"You went in bathing frequently in this pool, did you not?"

"Yes, almost every day, just before lunch."

"Was the pool sheltered, or was it in full view of people passing on the beach?"

"It was not secluded and could be seen by people passing and from the beach houses."

"Did you ever call Mr. Hall 'honey'?"

"Not and I did not hear the word used as a pet name until I came to Los Angeles. It seems to be in common use here."

Here Judge Monroe interrupted with:

"You heard the darkies in the South use the word, did you not?"

"No, you remember meeting Charlie Vaughn when you and Mr. Hall were in the boat fishing near Tampa?" Attorney Moore asked.

"Yes, he waved at us and told us to come over where the fishing was good."

"Were you and Mr. Hall in the same end of the boat when you first saw Charlie?"

NEGRO LEAPS INTO COLORADO.

SORRY IN A MOMENT, HE CALLED FOR HELP.

Ranch Hand, Tired of Life, Shortly After Being Rescued—Erection Worker Shoots Mexican Through Heart in Self-Defense.

YUMA (Ariz.) Jan. 21.—Last Sunday Henry Robinson, a negro ranch hand, furnished excitement and even entertainment for a large part of the population of Yuma by jumping in a dramatic manner, with suicidal intent, from the Southern Pacific bridge into the murky Colorado. With him at the time were his wife and two children. There was a domestic misunderstanding about the center of the bridge. The man proceeded to place on the bridge floor a child he was carrying and then, evading his wife's detaining hands, he leaped the rail, supposedly to his death. It happened, however, that he did not plunge beneath the rolling tide. Instead he dropped feet foremost through a slight depth of water into deep mud. The shock was a severe one and the water was very cold and he at once added his own screams to those of his wife, calling for assistance, which soon came. It is possibly worthy of note that as soon as the married couple were reunited the same old quarrel was recommenced.

SHOT THROUGH HEART.

Tuesday at a Reclamation Service camp, Will Haskins was badly injured by knife wounds, inflicted by a Mexican, whom Haskins in turn shot through the heart. There is evidence that the Mexican was the aggressor. Haskins had retreated to the corner of a room from which there was no escape. At the farther side of the room was a shotgun. Haskins, by a single blow of his fist, drove the Mexican to the room, seized the gun and happily found it loaded.

KILLED UNDER BOX CAR.

The last box car tourist killed under the wheels near Yuma was Lao Camper, of Chicago. He jumped from the train when discovered by a horse man, slipped on the grade and fell under the wheels.

FIREFIGHTER KILLS HIMSELF.

A hobby thief entered a boarding house at Yuma last Saturday and stole several articles of value, including a revolver. The man, chased by Marshall Levy and police, was found in the old penitentiary blacksmith shop. Cornered, he came to the door and drove the pistol as though to defend himself. Then, at the last moment, he changed his mind and put the weapon to his own head and sent a bullet through his brain. No means of identification were afforded by anything found on the man's body and it is believed that he was a desperate criminal, fearful of arrest for more serious crimes committed elsewhere.

YUMA A GIANT RETURN.

"Jumbo" Midlock, the gigantic Yuma Indian wrestler, who returned only a few months ago from a trip to Europe, has fallen in the world's estate that he is now acting as sandwich man for advertisement of the water of a local business firm.

"Jumbo" is getting thin and now weighs only 230 pounds. His appetite, however, remains unimpaired, and his favorite meal, when he can afford it, is on a plate of five pounds of steak and three loaves of bread.

CHINESE MINING MAGNATE.

Charles San, a Yuma Chinaman, is becoming a mining magnate. Last Monday having purchased half interest in seven promising claims six miles from Middle Wells. Charles and his partner, J. F. Northcutt, are preparing to install all necessary machinery to start shipment of lead-silver ore said to average in value over $30 a ton.

DISMEMBERING THE SPHINX.

A Harvard Scientist Claims to Have Solved the Riddle, Discovering a Temple and the Tomb of Menes.

(Chicago Record Herald.) That he has discovered the secrets of the Sphinx was made known through the theories of Harvard Semitic Museum and the Boston Museum of Fine Arts by Prof. G. A. Reisner, Harvard Egyptologist. Inside the Sphinx he found a temple dedicated to the sun. It is older than any of the pyramids and its date is somewhere around 6000 B.C., the most ancient in Egyptian history.

THE NUTRITION FRUIT CAN BE MADE AN IMPORTANT Agent in Reducing the Cost of Living.

(Washington Star.) The humble, but nutritious banana, in the opinion of American Consul Julius D. Dreher, at Port Antonio, Jamaica, must be reckoned with as a real factor in reducing the "high cost of living," but in the same breath he reported today to the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce that the banana crop from Jamaica alone this year would be 1,000,000 bunches short.

The United States consumes five times as much of the fruit as any other single country.

"It is encouraging in this day of the 'high cost of living,'" says Mr. Dreher, "to have good reasons for believing that the banana is destined to play no small part in meeting the world's demand for a larger and cheaper supply of wholesome food."

Drought and hurricanes, however, have worked havoc with the Jamaican crop, although Consul Dreher believes that increased yields in the other West Indian islands and in Central America may make up the deficiency. In the drought year ending June 30, last, the banana export from Jamaica alone, according to Gin for the Kidneys.

Doctors agree that good, pure gin, when properly prescribed, is a wonderful medicine for kidneys, liver and bladder. The one best prescription in which gin is used is given: "Six ounces good, pure gin, one-half ounce Murat compound, one-half ounce fluid extract Buchu." (Be sure to get the genuine Murat compound in original sealed package.) Any good druggist has it or can quickly get it. Shake bottle of mixture well each time and take one to two teaspoonfuls three times a day after meals.

This should be taken at first sign of kidney trouble, pain in the back, frequent or highly colored urination, scalding urine, rheumatic pains in the joints, puffiness under the eyes, dimmed vision. The serious forms of kidney trouble are thus prevented.—(Advertisement.)

made himself a god and who fashioned the Sphinx, is also within it. There are tunnels leading off into caverns which have not yet been penetrated, for the work has only been going on for six months.

The Sphinx is carved out of the natural rock, but within are the caves and buildings of a city of gold, which was perhaps once open to the air.

At present the excavations are confined to the chamber in the head. This chamber is sixty feet long by fourteen feet wide. It is connected by tunnels with the temple of the sun, which rests within the paws of the Sphinx.

Such relics as the "Cross Anaset" (the looped cross), symbol of the sun, are found by the hundreds. Several of these are gold, and have wires for tassel bells, which, when sounded by the priests, summoned up ghosts.

Inside the Sphinx are also tiny pyramids, although the Sphinx was built long before the great pyramids. A pyramid in those times was a sun dial, according to Prof. Reisner, and the Sphinx was a sun god. The Pyramid of Cheops is an absolutely accurate timekeeper.

According to Prof. Reisner, Egypt of today is one vast city, the edge of which has been scratched and the interior of which probably never will be disclosed.

Prof. Reisner hopes to discover among the relics of the Sphinx the secrets of the Egyptian priests whose magic is believed to have been marvelous.

Pictures of the inside of the head are being made and will be shown at Harvard and Lowell Institute courses next winter.

Prof. Reisner says he is having unusual difficulties in his work, for the Arabs who are assisting him refuse absolutely to sleep in the chamber. They say there are devils there and that the man who sleeps there will die.

SHIP WITHIN A SHIP.

The Congress, now building for the Pacific Coast Steamship Company at Camden, N. J., may be described as a ship within a ship, the arrangement of bulkheads being such that three feet inside the outer steel hull is another steel hull that encloses the whole and makes a disaster such as that to the Titanic a physical impossibility. This hull will cost $1,500,000 and Pacific Coast officials assert it will be the finest that ever went into constructive service.

Salisbury in Auto Cruiser Wins Fast Race.

Overall Gets Aviation Bug and Wants to Fly.

BY AD. G. WADDELL.

Fred de Kor narrowly escaped death in the opening event of the fourth annual aviation meet at Dominguez Field yesterday, when the eight-year-old of his Curtiss biplane broke while he was 1045 feet in the air.

Fred J. Schuman, in a Schiller biplane, and De Kor went after the record in the first event of the day. Schuman climbed to an elevation of 1575 feet and was approaching when he made a long volplane and a perfect landing. De Kor, who was far back of the grand stand and suddenly started for earth at a dangerous angle. Instead of coming over the field, he headed straight for the back of the stands.

The broken strut had loosened the steering wires so that when he turned to land he only took up the slack in the wires and did not move the rudder. He had no control of the machine, but when fifty feet from the ground, he was able to turn hard to the right and making a successful bank, landed safely in the plowed field several hundred yards in the rear of the stands.

One of the features of the program yesterday was the half-mile race between Schuman in a biplane and Howard G. Salisbury in a Pathway Cruiser automobile. The course was down the field and back. "This was the first time that an automobile had ever raced an aeroplane over a course with a turn. The automobile was the race as Salisbury made much better time on the turn. Salisbury's time was 2:25.4, while Schuman's was 2:34.8.

Next Dougherty made a flight of 2:25.4, carrying a passenger in a De Kor tractor biplane, to a height of 1000 feet. Dougherty's time was 2:25.4, while Schuman's was 2:34.8.

In the volcanic event, Schuman climbed from a great elevation to the ground without the use of his motor. He landed safely, but heavily, at the back of the grand stand.

Today, Orville Overall, the former champion, is to go up with Dougherty in the De Kor tractor, in the passenger-carrying event.

MATCH FOR WILDCAT.

KANSAS CITY (Mo.) Jan. 29.—(By A. P. Night Wire.) Billy Walters of Chicago, and Clarence ("Wildcat") Farna of this city, welterweights, were matched today to box fifteen rounds in St. Joseph, Mo., on February 21.

FROM A CARR WINDOW.

HARRY GILMORE rises with an indignant snarl. He is not to be the manager of the much-waloped Jack White.

"I wouldn't be his manager," said Gilmore yesterday, "if he would sign a contract to give me 75 per cent. of all his receipts. He is a dead one. My brother, Fred, had to give him up because he has never done anything since Joe Rivers beat him."

"The trouble with Jack is his lack of courage. When I first saw him, he looked to me like a winner. Right now, today, he could be at the top of the featherweight division if he wasn't scared to death in the ring."

"Jack fought with lightweight over here, but he can make 112 with ease. He is rather clever and has a harder punch than any featherweight now in the ring. But he is so lacking in nerve that he is afraid to step in close enough to hurt anybody."

I remember that Ad Wolgast predicted that this would be the finish of Jack White. Before he ever saw him in the ring, Ad swept the Chicago boy clear off the landscape.

He happened to meet White on the street in Venice one day and they were introduced. "Jim," said Ad contemptuously, "he's no fighter. He hasn't the heart of a rabbit. I can tell by the hang-dog look that he has. He keeps looking at your feet all the time."

Harry Gilmore has gained considerable local fame as a picker of winners in boxing matches. Since last May when Jack White fought Owen Moran, Gilmore has named the winner of every match at Vernon. Therefore he is entitled to be listened to.

Although, of course, he is not prepared to give a definite judgment on boys he has never seen in real action, he looks with a favor upon Kid Williams in the Williams-Campbell match.

"I saw Williams boxing at Venice the other day," he said last night, "and his foot work impressed me as remarkable. I doubt if Campbell can stick it out for twenty rounds of a pace as fast as will be set in this fight. Williams is too strong as well as too fast."

Harry has a high opinion of Luther McCarty.

"Some of you fellows have taken a dislike to McCarty because of the cowboy stuff, but that should not blind your judgment."

"McCarty can undoubtedly beat any of the heavyweights with the possible exception of Sam Langford. I think he could be at Jack Johnson without much trouble."

"If he fought Sam Langford, he-

Agrees to Fight Any of the Large Boys July 4—Coffin or McCarty Will Be Given This Week. Will Take on Anyone in the East Now, Should Fight the Night.

BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Jan. 29.—(Special Dispatch.) Luther McCarty, recognized heavy-weight champion pugilist of America, stopped in Chicago today, on his way to St. Louis, long enough to announce that he would be ready for a fight with "any of the big fellows" by July 4.

"I will not fight long before the fight," McCarty said while Manager Billy McCarney sat by and corroborated everything the champion said by vigorous shakes of his head. "I couldn't fight before then in justice to myself. My hands weakened under the strain of all the fights I had on the Pacific Coast. Besides, I've done enough in the past eight months to earn a rest."

NOW IN ST. LOUIS.

McCarty will show tomorrow afternoon and evening in St. Louis. The champion and his manager arrived in Chicago early in the morning and had intended going to St. Louis on an early train, but missed connections and McCarty got busy and wired.

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—(Special Dispatch.) Count and Countess de Lantenay of Paris, while fishing near San Diego today, brought to the surface a deep sea fish, consisting of grouper and others.

The Countess is an enthusiastic sportsman and was desirous of landing deep sea fish. Tomorrow she plans to hunt game fish with light tackle. They are to spend several days on the island.

MRS. BAT NELSON BACK TO WORK.

Cartoonist Bilde Will Stick to the Job.

"Will See Bat Occasionally When He Is Boating at or Near Denver," She Says—Is Under Contract to a Newspaper to Draw Cartoons. Bridgroom to Continue Fighting.

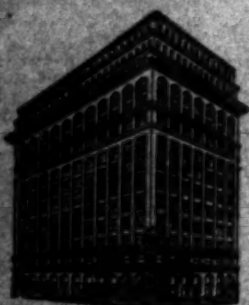

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—(Special Dispatch.) Mrs. Bat Nelson, wife of the Durable Dane, will return to Denver in a few days and resume her work as a cartoonist on a Denver newspaper. This was one of the articles of agreement binding her marriage with the Hagsworth warrior.

The new Mrs. Nelson and the boxer are quartered in the luxurious hotel at the Annex, the most expensive suite in Chicago. Their meals are served in their own private dining room, a special maid looks after the wants of the bride, and Bat for the first time in his life is attended by a French valet. Friends of the bride are calling in streams, and Mrs. Nelson is busier drawing cartoons of her visitors than when she is working at her newspaper position.

Nelson's home town of Hagsworth has made no impression on the bride. Mrs. Nelson is busy at present drawing a big cartoon of her idea of Hagsworth for a Chicago newspaper.

Mrs. Nelson is emphatic in her declaration that she will not interfere with Nelson's ring plans.

REAL ESTATE MORTGAGES

—Advantages and Pitfalls

A FIRST MORTGAGE

on valuable property, if not for too large an amount, is perhaps the safest security obtainable.

It is in Mortgages of this character that this Bank invests the greater part of the funds entrusted to it by Depositors.

Good Mortgages pay Five, Six and Seven Per Cent interest. Recognizing the desirability of such securities, and their excellent earning power, many people seek to invest their surplus funds in Mortgages.

Expert knowledge is necessary, however, to positively safeguard such investment—knowledge that the average investor does NOT have.

Let us trace, for example, the course through which a loan application goes in this Bank. It will give you an idea of the knowledge necessary, and the expert information required, in order to make a safe First Mortgage loan.

The Borrower comes to our Loan Department, and after stating his desires, fills out a detailed application blank, provided the loan seems to be one that this Bank may be willing to make.

Hundreds of applications come to us which never go even this far. We know at once that the loan desired will not meet our rigid standards for safety and desirability.

Under the State Banking Law we are not permitted to loan in excess of 80% of the value of the property upon which the loan is to be made. In actual practice we seldom loan over 40%.

After the application blank is completed, our Expert Appraiser, whose special business it is to investigate Loan Applications, makes a minute examination of the property itself.

This man is first of all a Conservative. He has no enthusiasm in regard to properties or people. By long training and experience, he is an expert judge of values.

He considers the location of the property, its actual (not speculative) value, the improvements upon it, verifies the lot and number—and then hands the application over to our Loan Committee, with his recommendation for or against the loan.

Our Loan Committee is made up of men who have been loaning money on Los Angeles Real Estate for the past twenty years. Their ability may be judged by the fact that this Bank, after a score of years of loaning money, has in its possession no real estate or other collateral which it has been obliged to take on foreclosure.

Our Loan Committee is eminently PRACTICAL in its work. No loan is ever made without its approval—nor any money paid over until its members have personally approved the applicant in writing.

After approval, the title to the property is questioned in verified and guaranteed by some one of our local Abstract Companies. Matters of Insurance are looked after. Then the Mortgage papers are made out, signed, recorded—then filed in our vaults, together with the Insurance papers, deed, and any other papers necessary.

After this the money is turned over to the Borrower.

You will see from this somewhat general description of the process that our First Mortgage loans are made under a careful, searching system operated throughout by experts.

This is the only really safe method under which money can be loaned in First Mortgages.

Does it seem to you that the average investor can possibly have such facilities?

Does it seem to you that he or she probably has the requisite knowledge?

Loaning money SAFELY on First Mortgage is a business in itself.

How can the average investor expect to perform it successfully?

If you could do business through a Mortgage Broker in whose judgment you could have absolute confidence—who was always conservative, and never willing to loan on any property beyond the margin of safety—whom you could positively know would never be influenced through gain, friendship or personal favor in even the smallest transaction——Then you could feel reasonably safe in purchasing First Mortgages through him.

But such a man or Company would charge you, and naturally would be entitled to, a handsome commission for handling your money. Thus your net returns from your Mortgage investment would be materially reduced.

Another income reducer for the person investing in Mortgages may be found in the periods of time when his money is idle. Mortgages are made for a certain definite time. When paid off, a new investment of similar character has to be found. It is not easy for the average person to find a really desirable Mortgage investment. These are ordinarily taken to Banks because the average Borrower prefers to do business with a Bank rather than with an individual.

Here are your tasks, then, if you seek to loan money on Mortgage:

—You have to definitely ascertain the actual value of the property.

—You have to know that there are no other Mortgages upon it.

—You have to determine that the property actually belongs to the borrower alone, and that it positively is the holding upon which the loan is asked.

—You have to search and determine that owner has a good title to the property.

—You have to see that proper Mortgage papers are made out and signed.

—You have to know that sufficient Insurance is carried to protect your investment—see that this Insurance is kept paid up, and hold the papers themselves in your possession; and see also that the Taxes are paid.

—You have to collect the interest due.

—And finally you have to get your money back when the Mortgage itself is due.

This work, properly and carefully done, requires expert knowledge, plenty of time and painstaking effort.

The investor in Mortgages certainly earns the Five, Six or Seven Per Cent he receives.

If he is getting a larger interest than this, you will find that he is taking an increasingly greater risk.

Considering these facts, does it not appear that the Savings Bank Deposit at Four Per Cent Compound Interest is after all a more desirable investment?

Our next advertisement will treat on investments in Stocks, Notes, and other Speculative Securities.

M'GRATH WANTS CAMPI TO BE DOUBLE CHAMPION.

Believes Eddie Will Have No Trouble in Beating Kid Williams and Coulton and Then Will Be Sent After Kilbane—Bud Anderson Is Still After Poor Little Ad Wolgast.

By Harry A. Williams.

TIM M'GRATH is nursing more than one topnotch aspiration for Eddie Campi.

The athletic Tim will not be content until his protégé is custodian of at least two titles—the bantamweight and featherweight.

McGrath regards it as a foregone conclusion that Campi will beat Kid Williams in February 12. That accomplished, and he will send Eddie after Coulton. He is no less certain regarding the outcome of this match, and if he proves to be really prophetic, Campi will walk over Coulton to the bantamweight championship.

Granting for the sake of the narrative, that all these things take place and California claims the honor of another title holder, McGrath will guide Campi to France for a crack at the doughty Charles Le Dour.

Meanwhile, Campi will be growing and expanding as becomes all young men of his age. McGrath has it figured out that a year from now he will have grown into the featherweight class. Eddie will then turn his attention to either Mr. Kilbane or Mr. Dundee, assuming of course that one of these young men will be the boss of the featherweight division a year hence.

Kilbane and Dundee are to settle their differences here in April. The survivor of that twenty rounds of turmoil should retain for sometime to come, or until Campi accumulates enough heat to burn his way into that division.

Meantime, the McGrath programme will be held subject to revision, pending the coming unpleasantness with Kid Williams.

Here is Real Confidence.

McGrath believes that all these things will come to pass. Field Tim: "I waited a long time for this chance. We have remained idle for several months in order to get a crack at one of the topnotchers. At first we had direct designs on Coulton, but Williams's showing against the champion made it necessary for us to turn our attention to him, especially as Coulton did not seem inclined to accommodate Campi."

I stuck to McGrath like a leech to a black eye in order to get this match, and made several important concessions. I did this because I felt that the match practically meant the bantamweight championship for Eddie. If he doesn't win the title then I don't know the first thing about boxing."

A year from now and I will see him onto the featherweights."

Would Rival McGovern.

Should Campi perform up to McGrath's optimistic expectations, he will rival the achievements of the "Terrible Terry" McGovern, who was once custodian of both the bantam and featherweight crowns.

McGovern, finally "busted" Danny Dougherty champion, who in turn lost it to Harry Forbes, while McGovern later overcame the featherweight scrapper to Young Corbett. Terry, having outgrown the bantamweight class, found himself short of both titles.

Donald Still Defying.

Dick Donald's ten thousand dollar debt to Wolgast creates a lot of comment on Spring street yesterday. Noting this, Donald proceeded to add $3500 against $1000 that Anderson can stop the Durable Dutchman from answering the bell in the sixteenth round.

Many believe that Anderson lacks the necessary experience to tackle an old campaigner like Wolgast, but Bud would not back among the local ring fans if the two should clash.

There is the argument of those who would take the short end: "Nearly every champion has won the title by beating some man who is a crack fighter without backing among the local ring fans if the two should clash."

It would not be a case of youth being served, as Wolgast and Anderson are almost the same age. It is pointed out, however, that Wolgast has not registered a decisive victory against a topnotcher since his operation.

Anyway, Donald can be blamed for aiming high. That is one of the prerogatives of a champion.

After Biggie Game.

Johnny Dundee is beginning to fret under the limitations of the featherweight division. He wants to take a punch or two at the lightweight, "K. O." Brown preferred.

Scotty Montford, manager of the Italian with the Scotch label, says that nothing would suit him better than a crack at Brown, and he also asserts that Bud Anderson would be acceptable.

McGovern, however, positively refuses to listen to a decisive referee. He is a crack fighter, and he also asserts that Bud Anderson would be acceptable.

Baldwin Courts Trouble.

Matty Baldwin has the fever. He also would trek to the southland. Matty writes that he would like to tackle the winner of the Rivers-Brown imbroglio, and failing in that, would not be adverse to a scrap with Bud Anderson.

SECOND SOCCER GAME ON FOR SUNDAY.

The second series will begin Sunday, February 2, when the Rangers are to meet the Clans at Prager Park at 2:30 o'clock.

The Rangers have the best of the Clans so far, by having two wins to one, but the Clans are hopeful of making matters even.

The boys on both teams are feeling fit after the winter rest, and a good game should result.

The line-ups have not yet been definitely fixed, but they will probably be the same as usual.

Enthusiasts are reminded that the Rangers go to San Diego on February 12 to meet the Champions there.

BIG SHOOT SUNDAY.

The big merchandise shoot of the Los Angeles Gun Club is to be held next Sunday at the club grounds at Venice and all the details have been practically arranged. There will be three traps and the blue rocks will be thrown at sixteen yards from the unknown angles. A very large entry list of shooters has been assured.

But, Do They?

He quotes the late Mr. Brush as saying: "Do you mean to tear apart this great team that has just won the world's championship?"

McGrath nodded in the affirmative and asked him to get a proposition for McGovern, Dundee, Brown, Brown, Ferguson and another player.

Murphy again wrote that he wishes Frank Chance good luck as head of the New York Americans.

He adds: "The Cubs have been wallowing in prosperity for the last seven or eight years and some of them have quite modest fortunes and we think it would be better for the club to let them play elsewhere. The injection of new blood is therefore deemed absolutely essential at this time."

He predicts that all the Cub fans will be following the team again next year when they see that the changes in the club have been for the good.

President Murphy says he wired Manager Egan and asked him if he wanted Jim Thorpe on the Cub team next year. "If he does," Murphy said, "we will bid as high as any one for the redskin's services."

Nothing But Class.
